Mdina, the silent old capital city of Malta and Verdala Palace

Mdina known by its titles as Città Vecchia or Città Notabile, is a fortified city in the Northern Region of Malta, which served as the island's capital from antiquity to the medieval period and is on the tentative list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The city is still confined within its walls, and has a population of just under 300. Mdina remained the centre of the Maltese nobility and religious authorities (and property continues to largely be passed down from families and from generation to generation), but it never regained its pre-1530 importance, giving rise to the popular nickname the "Silent City" by both locals and visitors

Verdala Palace is a palace in the Buskett Gardens, limits of Siggiewi, Malta. The site of Verdala Palace was originally occupied by a hunting lodge, which was built in the 1550s or 1560s during the reign of Grand Master Jean Parisot de Valette. The lodge was built in the Boschetto, a large semi-landscaped area that was used by knights of the Order of Saint John for game hunting. The hunting lodge was expanded into a palace in 1586, during the reign of Hugues Loubenx de Verdalle. It was further embellished in the 17th and 18th centuries, during the reigns of Giovanni Paolo Lascaris and António Manoel de Vilhena and it now serves as the official summer residence of the President of Malta.

The visit to Mdina, will include a walking tour by a licensed tourist guide. The walk will be followed by dinner at Verdala Palace Buskett Gardens Price: €45 including transport

Marsaxlokk Fishing Village

The natural harbour has attracted seafaring cultures since ancient times. In the 9th century BC, Phoenicians used this port to land in Malta – they even had their own temple dedicated to Astarte. The Romans used Marsaxlokk bay for safe anchorage during their reign, as did the Arabs after them. Later on in Malta's history, Marsaxlokk provided anchorage for the Ottoman fleet when they came to lay siege to Malta in 1565. Marsaxlokk fishing village is the largest fishing harbour of Malta. It has been so since antiquity and today the greater part of fish sold on the islands are caught by fishermen coming from this village. Traditional luzzu's and larger fishing vessels line the sheltered harbour in a colourful display.

(Price including transport and dinner is € 35pp minimum of 13 persons)

Thursday 27th September 2018 (Afternoon/evening)

Visit to The three cities: Vittoriosa, Senglea and Cospicua by ferry boat

The Three Cities is a collective description of the three fortified cities of Vittoriosa (known as Birgu), Senglea (known as L'Isla) and Cospicua (known as Bormla). The oldest of the Three Cities is Vittoriosa (Birgu) which has existed since the Middle Ages and served as the first headquarters of the Knights of St John when they arrived in Malta. The other two cities, Senglea (L'Isla) and Cospicua (Bormla) were both founded by the Order of Saint John in the 16th and 17th centuries.

Our tour starts from the Barakka Gardens Valletta to Valletta's ditch down to the nearby Lascaris Wharf by the Barrakka Lift. The first lift on the site was built in 1905 but was closed in 1973 and dismantled in 1983. The lift can be seen in operation in the 1968 British adventure film, A Twist of Sand. A new lift was inaugurated on 15 December 2012.

Our tour continues with a Ferry Crossing to Cospicua (Bormla) allowing the visitor to appreciate the amazing majestic sea views of the island's fortifications of the Grand Harbour. A licensed tourist guide will take the group for a walking tour of Vittoriosa (Birgu). The walk will be followed by dinner

Price €40pp including dinner and transport back to Valletta (minimum of 35 persons)
